

6.
The D. f. d. alledged that the goods might be bought in the Country, or that they might be duly cutted and improved and the Master Estis not being therewith certified of duty, but that is but an allegation to sue the law and is positively false for he ever mad any entry thereto as may appear by Smith & Vnderwood's Evidence and the D. f. d. produced no sufficient p. v. or evidence to prove his suggestion for his allegation without proof and the D. f. d. then on ground against law for all w<sup>t</sup> reasons he said Nicholas Swale who affw<sup>t</sup> to the D. f. d. may be quashed and that the Judgment may pass for the said Christopher who affw<sup>t</sup> according to the law aforesaid to be bound as aforesaid.

Within being 2nd in the Court it was ordered that the same be copy'd for Mr. Vnderwood and the Court adjourned till this day com- brought being the eighteenth day of April, when the reasons aforesaid to be argued by the attorneys on both sides and considered on by the said Justices.

April the eighteenth One thousand eight hundred eighty six<sup>t</sup> Th<sup>r</sup>. Court sat again:
Mr. Corwin d. f. d. said that he arguing the reasons might be defend the money com<sup>t</sup> brought for his reasons, because the said Nicholas Swale who affw<sup>t</sup> to D. f. d. to be profane himself and have him argued broadly because it was the w<sup>t</sup> of yesterday Anthony Vnderwood for the D. f. d. D. f. d. of the Court that now further or more D. f. d. might be. Th<sup>r</sup>. S. sp. r. court being upon purpose for further disputation, did therefore D. f. d. the reasons might be had. The same day and argued and the Court will decide thereupon of and upon the premises until the day next at one of the clock being the one & twenty second day of the said month of April one thousand eight hundred eighty six<sup>t</sup> Th<sup>r</sup>. Court sat again and adjourned

The one & twenty second day of April 1686: Th<sup>r</sup>. Court sat again and adjourned till to morrow one of the clock.

Th<sup>r</sup>. twenty second day of April One thousand eight hundred eighty six<sup>t</sup>

The Court sat again:

And the said Justice having fully heard and understood the whole proceeding in the premises and the arguments and allegations on both sides D. f. d. do say that the reasons aforesaid are not sufficient to arr<sup>t</sup> th<sup>r</sup>. Judgment aforesaid. And it is by the Court here certified that the said Nicholas Swale who affw<sup>t</sup> to take nothing by the said Information. And that the said D. f. d. to go<sup>t</sup> thereof without day.

And It is ordered that there be paid by Mr. Lynch the sum of one hundred pounds of tobacco to the said Justice for his expense charged and attredance in and upon the Commission and plenip. aforesaid.

And that he said Clerk be paid by the said Justice Lynch the sum of ~~one hundred~~ Ninety pounds of tobacco for his paym<sup>t</sup> and exp<sup>t</sup> in and about the premises.

The Affidavit of Christopher Smith followeth in the next page:

Christopher Smith sworne saith on o<sup>r</sup> a bo<sup>t</sup> th<sup>r</sup> day of February the person enlitt<sup>t</sup>
Cap<sup>t</sup> Estis command<sup>t</sup> of the ship Providence of D<sup>r</sup>ake having in the hearing of th<sup>r</sup> D<sup>r</sup>ou<sup>t</sup>- layd op<sup>t</sup> n<sup>t</sup> his cabin and th<sup>r</sup> damage he was under by reason of some prohibited goods that was then on board his ship Providence aforesaid, unto Anthony Vnderwood promising the said Mr. Vnderwood Twenty pounds Sterling Provis<sup>t</sup> to have performed several services then agreed upon, or otherwise that he the said Estis should so certainly pay One hundred of Mauk on h<sup>t</sup> th<sup>r</sup> day having agreed by both th<sup>r</sup> in question th<sup>r</sup> D<sup>r</sup>ou<sup>t</sup> was perf<sup>t</sup> to the
with the said Estis to Putt upon and then to go on board his ship in order to fit her and make